NOTICE: All riders must have the saddle and head gear, if worn, of an appropriate size. They must be able to maintain their posture while riding without the aid of any mechanical restraints. A good measure of this is requiring the rider to stand in the stirrups, raising themselves from the saddle seat.

WARNING

Under Indiana law, an equine professional is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities. This limitation also applies to sponsors of equine activities or events.
